CHILDREN'S MOMENT

THE REV. ROCIO LOPEZ

(Children are invited to come forward for a brief scripture reflection.)

FIRST READING:

Exodus 19:2-8a

(The people sit.)

Lector    A reading from the book of Exodus.

The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites." So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. The people all answered as one: "Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do."

Lector      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 100

Lector      The psalm is read responsively by half verse.

1 Be joyful in the LORD, all you lands; *

serve the LORD with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

2 Know this: The LORD himself is God; *

he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise; *
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.

4 For the LORD is good;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

SECOND READING:

Romans 5:1-8

(The people sit.)

Lector            A reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans.

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Lector            The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

(All stand, if able.)

SEQUENCE HYMN

HYMN 686

*“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing
(verse 1 before Gospel; verses 2-3 after Gospel)*

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 9:35-10

(All stand if able, turn, and face the Gospel)

Deacon            The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People            Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.” Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Deacon            The Gospel of the Lord.
People            Praise to you, Lord Christ.

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A, BCP 361

Celebrant      The Lord be with you.
People        And also with you.

Celebrant      Lift up your hearts.
People        We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant      Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People        It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant      It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; for you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

HYMN S-129

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

(The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues)

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you,, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.” Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant      And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All:            Our Father, who art in heaven,
                  hallowed be thy Name,
                  thy kingdom come,
                  thy will be done,
                  on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
                  as we forgive those
                  who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
                  but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Season after Pentecost

The Season after Pentecost is the longest season of the Church year. It begins with Pentecost and Trinity Sunday and continues until Advent.

On the weekdays that follow Pentecost and Trinity Sunday, the Prayer Book appoints the numbered Propers according to the calendar date (BCP, pp. 158, 227). This season is often called Ordinary Time, meaning the ordered weeks of the year. Its liturgical color is green, a sign of growth in faith and discipleship.

During the Season after Pentecost, the Church reflects on what it means to live as Christ's people in everyday life. The prayers and readings focus on the teachings of Jesus, the mission of the Church, and the work of the Holy Spirit among us.

Several holy days may be observed during this season, including: Holy Cross Day (September 14); St. Michael and All Angels (September 29); All Saints' Day (November 1), often observed on the following Sunday. This long green season reminds us that Christian life is formed not only in great feasts, but also in steady worship, prayer, service, and growth in grace.
